

BAY AREA LEGAL AID

WORKING TOGETHER FOR JUSTICE

REENTRY LEGAL SERVICES IN ALAMEDA COUNTY

Providing legal advice, referrals and representation to low income, justice-impacted individuals with the following issues:

- Housing: evictions, reasonable accommodations, denial of housing due to criminal record.
- Public Benefits: appealing denial or termination of GA, CalWORKs, food stamps, or Medi-Cal; disputing overpayments.
- Suspended driver's licenses: suspensions due to tickets, child support, or other causes.
- Employment: employer background checks and related employment denials, occupational licensing.
- Criminal record remedies: Prop. 47 reductions, other felony reductions, early termination of probation, expunging criminal records, sealing juvenile records, correcting errors on record.
- Consumer: debt, credit reporting, identity theft.
- Education: getting into school, obtaining, deferring, or discharging student loans.
- Problems getting photo identification

IF YOU LIVE IN ALAMEDA COUNTY AND HAVE AN ARREST OR CONVICTION HISTORY AND A LEGAL PROBLEM IN ANY OF THE ABOVE AREAS, TALK TO A LAWYER FOR FREE BY:

DROPPING-IN (NO APPOINTMENT NEEDED):

THURSDAYS 1PM – 4PM

OR

CALLING BAY AREA LEGAL AID'S LEGAL ADVICE LINE AT (800) 551-5554

BAY AREA LEGAL AID

Alameda Regional Office

1735 Telegraph Ave, Oakland, CA 94612

<http://www.baylegal.org>

Bay Area Legal Aid provides legal assistance to low-income individuals only. We cannot guarantee that an attorney will represent you in your case, but we will provide advice and referrals to individuals who qualify for our services.