

Paul Berry is a Youth Action Board member, Intern at Spark Learn, Guardian Scholars assistant, and student. Paul believes you should be working on social reforms, human rights policies, and youth empowerment programs in the country. Paul is an enthusiastic individual with superior skills and a strong work ethic and is excited to begin new challenges with a successful team. In addition to being a guardian scholars youth assistant, Paul has taught financial literacy classes and tutored youth. When Paul isn't making three-pointers he is educating his friends, family, and youth. Paul is working towards a BA in business and is currently at Chabot College

Blessings

Paul Berry